

Event Overview

WHAT:

Working Wonders for Tufts Medical Center and Floating Hospital for Children is an inspiring benefit evening to recognize and celebrate champions from the Medical Center community.

WHEN:

Thursday, February 26, 2009

6:30 -7:30 pm: Cocktail Reception

7:30 - 10:00 pm: Dinner, Live Auction and Awards Presentation

WHERE:

The Westin Hotel, Copley Place, Boston, MA

WHO:

Honorary Chair:

Paul Pierce, Captain, MVP 2008 World Champion Boston Celtic

Honorees:

Paul Chan, Director of Development for the Massachusetts Housing Investment Corporation, and David Wazer, MD, Radiation Oncologist-in-Chief at Tufts Medical Center, embody the excellence, vision and leadership which Tufts Medical Center strives for everyday. In addition, we are excited and honored to present the inaugural Lifetime Achievement Award to the Saltonstall Family.

WHY:

Every day Tufts Medical Center is working wonders - providing academic level, sophisticated care in a warm, collaborative and inviting atmosphere. Proceeds from this event support compassionate care, leading-edge research initiatives and our promise of treating everyone who comes through our doors like they are part of the family.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN MIRACLES?
You will.

HOPE, FAITH AND CHARLIE
A true story of hope, faith and miracles.

HOPE, FAITH AND CHARLIE
An inspirational story of a young boy's battle with Stage 4 brain cancer, his family's unwavering fight to save his life, and the role the staff of Tufts & Floating played in Charlie's survival.

This empowering story is inspirational and emotional, heart-wrenching and heart-warming – sometimes laughable, often times tearable – and overflowing with invaluable life lessons that will last the reader a life-time. It will renew your belief in miracles and the goodness of mankind.
